Minutes from the February and March meetings were reviewed and approved.

Final plans for the April 11 CAMP seminar were discussed. Bob Stoddard reported that he had communicated with Ms. Rory Hays, who will be presenting the legal portion of the training, and asked her to review our ordinance and guidelines to see that we are prepared should we encounter any unauthorized demolition. NAPC has been given all our pertinent documents and Mr. Stoddard contacted Kate Arnold on their support staff and asked them to forward the documents to Ms. Hays, who lives in Arizona.

Ms. Arnold also sent word that the three trainers will be overnighing in Fairhope on Thursday and would like to have dinner with as many of the Magnolia Springs Commission as possible. Plans were made to meet at Jesse's Restaurant.

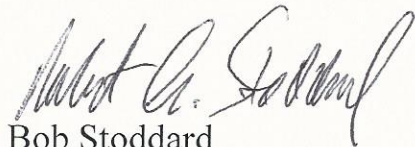

Gulf Coast Newspapers have been informed of the seminar, and their South Baldwin reporter, Kathy Higgins, will stop by at some point. Mr. Stoddard forwarded the meeting agenda to her.

Town Clerk Karen Biel sent a note that at present we have signed 27 attendees for the CAMP, and requests were still coming in. Jesse's has been informed of the present estimate, and have advised they will need a final figure on April 9th.

Donna Esslinger reported that the proofs for the Historic District entrance signs will be ready within a few days. She will leave copies at the Town Clerk's office and email or call members that they are available for review. Members were asked to respond quickly with comments.

The next regular meeting of the Magnolia Springs Historic Preservation Commission will take place on Thursday, May 1, at four o'clock in the Town Hall.

Meeting adjourned at 4:44.
